

Dear Friends,

We are pleased to announce the next phase of the Global Recruitment Campaign and the launch of Eye on the ICC – a regular e-update on developments at the International Criminal Court and the work of the Women’s Initiatives in advocating for gender justice.

As you know, we began the Global Recruitment Campaign in March 2004 to promote the appointment of more women to the ICC. We pursued the Campaign through to 2006 during the height of the ICC recruitment activities when the Court was engaged in significant and high volume recruitment expanding from a staff of around 150 to 439 (between 2004 - 2006).

Although the ICC is now not recruiting at the same rate, important and strategic positions still continue to be advertised as the Court estimates reaching a total staff of around 700 during 2007. We therefore continue to monitor crucial positions as they arise. It is clear after 3 years of closely working with and monitoring the institutional development of the Court that more gender competence is needed in the Court and more women are required to staff the ICC.

Eye on the ICC will be a regular email update on the substantive work of the ICC, its investigations and prosecutions, trials, participation of victims, judicial decisions and our own work in ensuring the prosecution of gender based crimes, access to justice for women in conflict situations and reparations for women victims/survivors of war and armed conflicts. The first Eye on the ICC will be available April 6th.

Information about some of our work is reflected on our website, www.iccwomen.org

Global Recruitment Campaign

Positions currently advertised are listed below. We ask for your ongoing support in identifying experienced women candidates. Please note the Court prefers applicants from a State Party to the ICC Statute, or from a State that has signed and is engaged in the ratification process. However, the Court has indicated applicants from non-States Parties may also be considered.

Guidelines for applications for the ICC can be found on the ICC website: <http://www.icc-cpi.int/recruitment/opportunities/guidelines.html>. It is essential for applications to follow these guidelines and include a completed personal history form. The ICC website address is: <http://www.icc-cpi.int/home.html>

Sincerely,
Women’s Initiatives for Gender Justice
