

March 2008

Dear Friends,

This is the second edition of the Global Recruitment Campaign for 2008 – the Women's Initiatives' campaign to promote gender competence within the International Criminal Court (ICC) and the appointment of more women to the ICC. Among the positions newly advertised on the ICC website, there are several Trial Lawyer and Assistant Trial Lawyer positions available in the Office of the Prosecutor (OTP), as the Court moves towards its first trials. In our Gender Report Card 2007 (available on our website: <http://www.iccwomen.org>), we identified that there are three times more men than women appointed at each of the P3 to P5 levels in the OTP. It would be good if this balance could start to be addressed with the current round of appointments. We ask for your ongoing support in identifying experienced women candidates for the positions listed below.

Guidelines for applications for the ICC can be found on the ICC website: <http://www.icc-cpi.int/recruitment/opportunities/guidelines.html>. It is essential for applications to follow these guidelines and include a completed personal history form. The ICC website home address is: <http://www.icc-cpi.int/home.html>. Please note that the Court prefers applicants from a State Party to the ICC Statute, or from a State that has signed the Statute and is engaged in the ratification process. However, the Court has indicated that it may also consider applicants from non-States Parties.

If you have been forwarded this e-mail by a friend or colleague and would like to subscribe to the Global Recruitment Campaign, please send an e-mail to grcampaign@iccwomen.org with your name, contact information and organization. We look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Women's Initiatives for Gender Justice
